Numb. 12395.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday December 7, to Tuesday December 10, 1782.

Whitehall, November 30, 1782.

WHereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that, in the Night between Monday the 21st and Tuesday the 22d of October last, some Person or Persons unknown maliciously set on Fire a Barn, situated on a Farm in the Parish of Melbury Osmond in the County of Dorset, the Property of the Countess Dowager of Ilchester, in the Occupation of Mrs. Susanna Stone, by which the said Barn, together with a considerable Quantity of Corn therein, and also Two Ricks of Corn near adjoining thereto, were entirely consumed; and that in the same Night Two Hay-Ricks on a distant Part of the said Farm were also set on Fire and burnt: And whereas it has been also represented, that, in the Night between Monday the 18th and Tuesday the 19th of this instant November, another Barn, on Melbury Sampford Farm in the said County, also the Property of the said Countess Dowager of Ilchester, and in the Occupation of Farmer John Gill, was likewise maliciously set on Fire by some Person or Persons unknown, and, together with a considerable Quantity of Corn therein, was also entirely consumed: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Offences above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

T. TOWNSHEND.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Countess Dowager of Ilchester offers a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to any Person making such Discovery as above-mentioned, to be paid by her Steward, Mr. John Field, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.
